

CHAPTER VI
POLICE DEPARTMENT

Article 1
ORGANIZATION AND REGULATIONS

106.0101 ESTABLISHMENT

The police department heretofore created for the city of Taylor and for this chapter continued shall consist of the chief of police and as many policemen, policewomen, patrolmen and officers as may be authorized by the governing body.

106.0102 ADDITIONAL OFFICERS - EMERGENCY

In case of riot or unusual or general disturbances of the peace, the chief of police shall have power to appoint such other and additional policemen and policewomen as he may deem necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

106.0103 DUTIES OF CHIEF

The chief of police shall be the keeper of the city jail, and shall have custody of all persons incarcerated therein. He shall keep such records and make such reports concerning the activities of his department as may be required by statute or by the governing body. The chief shall be responsible for the performance by the police department of its functions, and all persons who are members of the police department shall serve subject to the orders of the chief of police.

106.0104 DUTIES OF POLICE

It shall be the duty of the police department, and each and every member of the police force, to notice and diligently inquire into and report to the chief of police all violations of the city ordinances, violations of the criminal laws of the state and breaches of the peace, and to make complaint against the person or persons guilty thereof, and to attend punctually on all trials of offenses in regard to which complaint has been made by any policeman.

106.0105 RULES AND REGULATIONS

The chief of the police department may make or prescribe such rules and regulations as he shall deem advisable; such rules, when approved by the governing body, shall be binding on such members. Such rules and regulations may cover, besides the conduct of the members, uniforms and equipment to be worn or carried, hours of services, vacations, and all other similar matters necessary or desirable for the better efficiency of the department.

106.0106 SPECIAL POLICE

At the request of any corporation, firm or person, the chief of police may appoint one or more special policemen or policewomen to duty for such corporation, firm, or person which special policemen or policewomen shall have all the authority now, or which may be hereafter conferred by law upon policemen, and may make arrangements that such special policemen or policewomen shall be paid by the corporation, firm or person requesting the same, and covered by their Workmen's Compensation coverage in which case such special police shall receive no compensation from the city and the city shall not be responsible for their negligent or unauthorized acts, this being the responsibility of the firm, person or corporation requesting their appointment.

Article 2

POWERS AND DUTIES

106.0201 MONEY OR PROPERTY OF ARRESTED PERSONS

It shall be the duty of the police department, and of each and every member of the police force, to safely keep all moneys or property which may be found on the person, in possession of, or claimed by, any person arrested for crime, and pay or deliver over the same by the order of the municipal judge, and forthwith after taking the same, to report in writing the kind and amount thereof, to the municipal judge.

106.0202 ARRESTED PERSONS

Any police officer after making any arrest, with or without a warrant, for any violation of city ordinances, shall take the person or persons so arrested, without any unreasonable delay, before the municipal judge, to be dealt with according to law and the ordinances of the city.

106.0203 STOLEN, ABANDONED, LOST PROPERTY

The chief of police shall have the custody of all lost, abandoned or stolen property recovered in the city.

Article 3
